

LGSTX Services Named Airport Business of the Year

WILMINGTON, Ohio – August 26, 2021 – LGSTX Services, a wholly owned subsidiary of Air Transport Services Group, Inc. (NASDAQ:ATSG), was named 2021 Airport Business of the Year yesterday at the Ohio Aviation Association (OAA) Annual Conference. The award recognizes a business with a mission, services, and goals that result in a positive impact on a community, workforce, and local airport.

LGSTX Services operates Wilmington Air Park (KILN) on behalf of the Clinton County Port Authority. The air park in Wilmington is currently the highest-volume freight airport in Ohio. It encompasses nearly 2,000 acres and includes two runways and nearly 2.8 million square feet of facility space.

"It is a tremendous honor to accept this award on behalf of the airport operations team," said Jeremy Heard, director of airport operations for LGSTX. "We have an amazing group of employees who work very hard every day to make Wilmington Air Park the best it can be."

"We truly appreciate the work the LGSTX team does, daily, to ensure the Wilmington Air Park is open, running smoothly, and growing," said Dan Evers, executive director of the Clinton County Port Authority. "Their breadth and depth of knowledge about the airport is invaluable, and they genuinely care about what is best for its success."

In addition to airport operations, LGSTX Services also provides material handling equipment and conveyor services, facility maintenance services, aviation ground support equipment services, and distribution services to commercial businesses, airports, and airlines at more than 400 locations worldwide as an integral part of ATSG's 360-degree promise to support every aspect of customers' aviation needs, from leasing and operation to maintenance and ground support.
